

Final Song - Maria Reich

You and I surrounded by the light
Now is the only thing we know

Drifting by the colors of the rainbow holding up pallets of surprise

Then we'll walk to shores before unknown and we'll search not find but not alone

Years fly by we're mesmerized by space and time everything must die

Passing by the bright eyes and the dark scars waking up sometimes

Then we'll walk to shores before unknown
and we'll find not search, not alone

We will go till the end of time Noone blinds us
